Lifting Up... June 2012

We recently received news of the death of Reverend Edward M. Brown, III on May 23. Ed was the husband of Reverend Joyce Myers-Brown and began his ministry in the congregational church as a student worker and ecumenical worker in Europe and the United States. He continued with an illustrious career on behalf of the American Missionary Association during the civil rights movement, working across the South in voter registration, racial reconciliation, integration, and advocacy for justice. We celebrate a life and ministries, full and well lived, and hold Joyce in our prayers.

We were saddened to receive news of the death of Dorothy Kavar, the mother of Lou Kavar. Dorothy lived with her son in Atlanta. Lou is a member of Central Congregational Church UCC in Atlanta, GA, a minister with standing in the Georgia-South Carolina Association of the Southeast Conference, a professor with Capella University and a spiritual director.

Rev. Larry Evans, pastor of Midway Congregational UCC in Midway, GA will undergo a total knee replacement in a few weeks. We wish Larry a successful surgery and speedy recovery.
